SATURDAY—Report of Committees

Temperance Committee

Brother president, we your committee on Temperance submit this our report. Due to the fact that so many families are being neglected on account of intemperance, we are asking the support of the Convention to put forth every effort possible to abolish intemperance in every way; especially our leaders, ministers, and deacons, who can intrust in the ways of righteousness.

Your Committee: Sisters Eva J. Byrd, Eddie D. Harris, Henrietta Walden, Pauline Banks, Mary Lee, and Mary Kemon.

Deceased Committee

Brother president, we your committee on deceased submit this our report: We have searched the fields and find one deceased since our last Convention, in the person of Deacon David Ganzie, who was deacon of Mt. Moriah P. B. Church, Lamont, Florida.

Your Committee: Rev. J. T. Towns, Rev. W. M. Atkins, Rev. P. H. Davis, Rev. W. H. Witherspoon, Rev. W. C. White, Sister

Estelle Kilpatrick, Lovette Scott, Annie Jacobs, Alberta Richardson, Rebecca Baker, and Karell Robinson.

Committee on Ways and Means

Brother president, we your committee on ways and means wish to make our report: We recommend that the registration of this S. S. and Educational Convention as follows:

Elders, $1.50; Licensed Preachers, $1.25; Superintendents, $1.25; Teachers, 50c; delegates, $1.00; Honorary Members, 50c; Training Unions, $5.00; Presidents, 75c; Usher Board, $5.00; and president of board, 75c.

We further recommend that each S. S. student pay the district superintendent 10c each on his official visit and after expenses are paid, then be reported in the S. S. Convention.

Your Committee: Revs. A. Carter, L. Daymond, Sisters Atlean Hicks, M. P. Allen, and Rev. S. B. Betsey.

Committee on S. S. and Education

Brother president, we your committee on Sunday School and Education submit this our report: Knowing the great need of Sunday Schools and the influence they exert in the moral and religious training of those who attend and knowing the benefits derived from it, not only to the individual, but also to the church, we urge that a live and progressive Sunday School is kept and encouraged to press forward in each church. We further urge that all of our children be given the opportunity for an education under the christian influence of our own Griffin Institute as far as this is possible to instill the loyalty and devotion to our church supported institution.

Humbly submitted: Rev. S. A. Thomas, Rev. J. T. Towns, Sis. C. Morrisy, Sis. H. Moore, Sis. Arnestine Killen, Martha Carter, and Sis. Queen Hargrette.
